We have an opportunity to attend the March for Life in Washington DC for a shorter time than usual but will still be a worthwhile experience to stand up for LIFE. Please let Diann know if you are interested. Mr. Fearday has invited us to join the St. Anthony students to help fill the bus. We would like to know as soon as possible, but Bales is holding a bus until we fill it. Help with funding is available so don't let the price say NO for you. Thanks for all you do for the pro-life movement.

This ministry is a wonderful way to care for those who have done so much for us, our parish and community. Thank you for distributing Holy Communion to them, offering Communion Services and praying the Rosary with the residents. The residents are very thankful for this ministry, and it brings joy to many, including all those who visit our sick and homebound. Thank you, Alice, Linda, and Kristen for responding to Jesus's call to care for those in need.

Thank you, Alice and Marlene Harris, for organizing the funeral dinners! You make it look easy! Thanks for all that you do to help our families during their time of need. BEHOLD, THE
OF GOD
WHO TAKES AWAY
THE SIN OF THE WORLD
JOHN 1:29

Soul Food
By Fr. Tomy

“Behold the Lamb of God”

Today’s Gospel gives us one of the most powerful titles ever spoken about Jesus. John the Baptist points to Him and says, “Behold, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sins of the world.” These words are familiar to us, repeated at every Mass, yet the Church invites us to pause and rediscover their depth. John does not call Jesus a teacher or miracle worker; he calls Him the Lamb—a title rich with meaning, sacrifice, and love.

From the beginning of Scripture, the lamb is a sign of salvation. In Exodus 12, during the first Passover, the blood of a spotless lamb saved the Israelites from death. That event was not only history; it was prophecy. Jesus is the true Passover Lamb. His blood, shed on the cross, saves us not from physical death, but from the deeper death caused by sin and separation from God.

Saint Paul expresses this mystery in 2 Corinthians 5:21: Jesus, though sinless, took our place so that we might become righteous before God. He carried what did not belong to Him so that we could receive what we did not deserve. This is atonement. This is love.

The prophet Isaiah foresaw this centuries earlier, describing a servant “led like a lamb to the slaughter” who bore the sins of many. Jesus freely chose the cross. He did not resist or flee. Every wound and every breath on Calvary proclaimed His love for us.

The image of the scapegoat from Leviticus 16 deepens our understanding. On the Day of Atonement, the sins of the people were placed on a goat and carried far away into the wilderness. Jesus fulfills this ritual completely. He does not merely cover sin; He carries it away. He becomes both Lamb and Scapegoat so that sin would no longer define us.

To “behold” the Lamb is more than hearing words; it is allowing our hearts to be moved. When we pray or sing, “Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world,” it should awaken deep gratitude as we remember the price He paid and the love that held Him on the cross. To follow the Lamb today means allowing our lives to be transformed—replacing malice with innocence, power with love, pride with humility, and status with service.

Three simple and practical ways to live this mystery:

1. Come to the Lamb with your sins. Do not carry guilt alone. Jesus already carried it for you. Make regular use of the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Confession is not about shame; it is about freedom.
2. Receive the Eucharist with awareness and gratitude. When you come forward for Communion, remember: This is the Lamb who was slain, now given to you as food. Pause. Bow your heart. Whisper a quiet “Thank you, Lord.”
3. Stop scapegoating others. In daily life, we often blame others—spouses, children, coworkers, the Church, society. But Jesus has already taken the blame. As forgiven people, we are called to forgive, not accuse; to heal, not wound.

John the Baptist still points to Jesus today and says, “Behold the Lamb of God.” He is not distant or angry, but a loving Lamb—wounded, broken, and given for us. May our hearts be filled with love and gratitude, and may our lives become a humble response to His sacrifice.

The family of Ronnie Ochs would like to thank Fr. Tomy Philip and Fr. Dean Probst for the beautiful Mass that helped celebrate Ronnie’s life. Vicki and Kaitlyn, thank you for the beautiful music. Thank you to all the ladies from St. Thomas and St. Mary parishes who provided and helped with the funeral dinner. It was greatly appreciated. We are grateful to all of you for the prayers, cards, flowers, and gifts. Your kindness, generosity, and compassion have touched our hearts.

The Newton Family Life Center will be holding their annual online auction to be launched on March 8th at their annual breakfast – St. Thomas Parish Center. If your family or business would like to make a donation or has an item to donate, please call or text Renee Gier at 217-821-0872. Please submit items soon. Thank you in advance for your support!

Baked goods will be available for purchase, and chances will be available for raffle items.
