"UNDER GOD"

The Pledge of Allegiance has undergone several revisions since it was initially written back in 1892. The last significant change came in 1954 when President Eisenhower signed a congressional resolution adding the words "under God."

This revision would have never happened without advocacy by the Knights of Columbus.

In a letter thanking the Order, President Eisenhower stated that these words "remind Americans that despite our great physical strength we must remain humble. They will help us to keep constantly in our minds and hearts the spiritual and moral principles which alone give dignity to man, and upon which our way of life is founded."

The original Pledge had no references to God. However, the Knights personally inserted "under God" into their recitations at the opening of Fourth Degree assembly meetings in 1951. Momentum grew within the Knights to petition the United States Congress to revise the Pledge.

The appeals received generally positive feedback and eventually 17 congressional resolutions were introduced on the matter. In 1954 a congressional resolution was adopted by both houses of Congress and President Eisenhower signed it on June 14, 1954.
