A Message from Fr. Pawel

The Holy Eucharist holds a unique place in Christian theology, particularly within the Catholic tradition, where it is described as the "source and summit" of the Christian life. It is not merely a symbol, but the Real Presence of Jesus Christ—His Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity. Because of this belief, any deliberate act of contempt, mockery, or disrespect toward the consecrated Host is considered a grave offense against God. This offense is known as sacrilege.

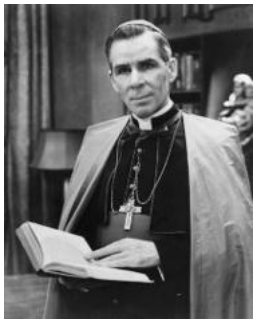

According to the Catechism of the Catholic Church, paragraph 2120: "Sacrilege consists in profaning or treating unworthily the sacraments and other liturgical actions, as well as persons, things, or places consecrated to God. Sacrilege is a grave sin especially when committed against the Eucharist, for in this sacrament the true Body of Christ is made substantially present for us."

From the earliest centuries, Christians understood how serious it was to offend against the Body of Christ. St. Cyprian of Carthage, in the third century, strongly condemned receiving Holy Communion while in mortal sin, thereby profaning the Eucharist. St. Paul was even more direct, warning that whoever receives the Body and Blood of the Lord unworthily brings judgment upon himself (cf. 1 Cor 11:27–29).

This is one way in which the Blessed Sacrament can be profaned. However, Eucharistic sacrilege can take other forms as well. These include deliberately throwing or scattering the consecrated Host into the trash, pouring the Precious Blood onto the ground or into an inappropriate place, or intentionally spitting out the consecrated Host after receiving Holy Communion. Such actions constitute a grave offense against Jesus Christ Himself, truly present in the Blessed Sacrament. For us as Catholics, such an act is deeply heartbreaking and painful because an offense has been committed against the sacred Eucharistic species. When the Blessed Sacrament has been desecrated, it is fitting that we respond with prayer, reparation, and atonement.

For this reason, we will have Eucharistic Adoration on Friday, September 25, at 6:00 p.m. at St. Thomas Church. This will be a time of prayer, worship, and love for Jesus, truly present in the Eucharist. We will ask for God's mercy, offer reparation for the offense committed, and pray for the conversion and salvation of those involved.

I invite all parishioners to join us in prayer and to spend this time with our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament as an act of atonement and restoration for the harm done to Christ.

Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen Beatification

Background and the Path to Beatification:

The Miracle: The beatification recognizes a verified 2010 miracle involving the complete recovery of a stillborn infant in Central Illinois (James Fulton Engstrom) who went without a pulse for 61 minutes before starting to breathe after prayers for Sheen's intercession.

The Journey: Sheen was declared Venerable in 2012 by Pope Benedict XVI. Although a 2019 miracle approval led to an initially planned 2019 beatification, it faced administrative and procedural delays before being officially rescheduled for 2026.

Legacy: Sheen was a 20th-century pioneer in Catholic media, renowned for his radio and television program Life Is Worth Living and his extensive service as Bishop of Rochester and Archbishop.
